*A Loving & Caring Church
Transforming God's Vision Into Action*

There is a Bible Study entitled, “Called to Ministry.” The question is asked, “What do we mean by the word, ministry?” The following definition is given, “Ministry describes any and all activity of the church or individuals intended to have a helping or redeeming effect on other persons. The model for ministry is God’s love revealed in Jesus Christ.”

According to this definition, how much of what we do at First Baptist Church can be viewed as “ministry?” Do we say what we say, do we do what we do, with the intention of helping and redeeming people? Anyone can help another person, but for us as Christians, the motive for our helping must be to share the love of God as it is revealed in Jesus Christ.

With that in mind, as we near the beginning of summer, we are presented with several opportunities for “ministry.” Passport Kids takes place on June 18-21 for our schoolagers at Eagle Eyrie. It is a chance for our children to be involved in missions, both learning about and carrying out missions. Youth Passport is July 7-12. Our young people and their adult leaders will be going to Danville, Va., to participate in a wide variety of ministries in that community. Our youth will be able to do hands-on ministry as well as explore possible future ministry options. July 14-18 is Vacation Bible School. Inviting people to be a part of this special week is a ministry. Bringing them to VBS is a ministry. Being a part of the VBS staff is a ministry. Lots of ways for you to be involved.

Later, on September 21-26, we will take a Construction Mission Trip to Nada, Kentucky. Our goal will be to complete projects that were started during the summer by other church groups. It is always a blessing to work with the families in Nada.

I also mention other opportunities, including the Schoolage Retreat on May 23-24, “Mission: Possible” on June 21st, when the youth will involve themselves in several ministries in our community on the same day, and one that recently took place, when Women on Mission prepared and served a meal at the Salvation Army Shelter.

And if you can’t physically participate in any of these ministries, you can offer the ministry of prayer. You can pray for these and other ministries anywhere and anytime.

I invite you to spend the next few months “helping and redeeming people, modeling the love of God revealed in Jesus Christ.”

Dear First Baptist Church,

A few weeks ago a donor brought baby items to AbbaCare in celebration of a birthday. Our staff and volunteers love to celebrate "birth days." What made this celebration so unique was the fact that the mother did not know her child. She did know that long ago she chose life for her baby. She also knew the weight of her newborn in her arms, the burden of her circumstances in crisis, and the despair of saying goodbye as her baby was placed with an adoptive family. Although sorrows remain, the joy of knowing she made the choice for life is cause for celebration.

Because of your support, AbbaCare continues to have the privilege to speak to women whose situations have created for them a crisis. We have the opportunity to promote, life ... for the unborn...and new life for the mother through the grace of Jesus Christ. Thank you for being a financial partner in this ministry.

In His Name,
Teresa Rhodes
Executive Director

Grace Notes

By Lori

*"Let us come into His presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to Him with songs of praise!"
Psalm 95:2*

Our Chancel Handbell Choir presented a wonderful concert of handbell music on Sunday night, May 11th. They did an outstanding job and worked very diligently to prepare the program we presented to the congregation and community. These are a few prayer suggestions for our congregation to pray for those involved in Music Ministry here at our church:

- Pray that those involved in leading through music would participate fully in the worship services and experience the wonder of God's presence.
- Pray for wisdom and guidance for your church musicians as they prepare for each service.
- Pray that church members who have musical talents will offer those talents unto the Lord.
- Pray that vocalists and instrumentalists would pursue excellence with their musical abilities to offer their best gifts unto the Lord!

I would like to thank all those who participate in the various musical groups in our church. I appreciate and admire your dedication to serving God through your gifts and talents!

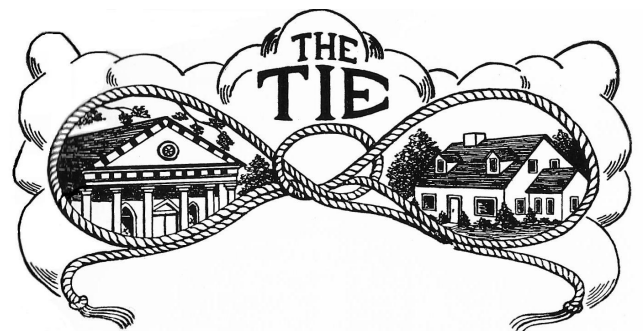

Spring is here and we encourage you to come enjoy God's beauty at Hunting Ridge. Come take a hike, go fishing or enjoy a picnic. Please give us a call to check the schedule and let us know you are visiting. Call us at 540-662-9004. If we are out, leave us a message and let us know you are visiting.

Following is a list of miscellaneous items that are needed at HRR. Please contact Jeff or Melissa to coordinate donations.

- Hedge Trimmers
- Sporting Equipment (basketball, volleyball, tennis, horse shoes, yard games, etc)
- Fishing poles and tackle that our retreats can use
- Life jackets
- Paddles, oars
- Picnic Tables and benches
- Landscaping materials (flowers, rock for flower beds, etc.)
- Leftover lumber from your home improvement projects (2x4's, plywood, 4x4's etc.)
- Lawn tools (yard rake, leaf rake, etc.)

Thank you for your support of Hunting Ridge!

A Seed

A wonderful thing is a seed—
The one thing deathless forever;
Forever old and forever new,
Fickle and faintless never.
Plant lilies and lilies will bloom;
Plant roses and roses will grow,
Plant hatred and hatred to life will spring,
Plant love and love to you will bring
The fruit of the seed you sow.

FUNDRAISER FOR HRR BONFIRE AREA RENOVATION

Caleb Knittle, BSA Troop 11 Eagle Project

I am a Boy Scout with Troop 11 working toward completing my Eagle Scout Project to achieve Eagle Rank. My project includes renovation of the bonfire area at Hunting Ridge Retreat shown below. This includes replacing the old wood benches and building a firewood bin (like the one shown below). The estimated cost for the materials needed (wood, brackets, screws, etc.) is about $950. I am raising funds to pay for the materials and could use your help through donations to HRR.

If you would like to help with donations, please make checks payable to First Baptist Church, and indicate "HRR Caleb's Eagle Project" on the memo line.

Thank You!
Caleb

Dear Family and Friends,

I hope everyone has had an eventful year and is looking forward to a relaxing summer. My first year at Virginia Tech has been fantastic. I can't believe how quickly these two semesters have gone. I am sad my freshman year is coming to an end, but I am looking forward to the next three years at VT. I am especially excited for this summer, which is why I am writing this letter to you. You all have had an impact in my life, and I want to share a special opportunity I have for this summer with you.

While in Winchester, I was involved in my youth group at First Baptist Church. Over the past year at school, I have become involved in the Baptist Collegiate Ministries (BCM). The BCM has had a great impact on my life and my faith. I have met many people and formed friendships through this ministry. I am fortunate to have had opportunities which allowed me to be involved in community. I have done several community service events that have been about giving back to the community and this campus. These events and my experiences with FBC and the BCM have changed my life, and I knew I wanted to do something more.

Over the past year, I have heard many stories from my cousin Tyler about the summer internship he did with an organization called Church Hill Activities and Tutoring (CHAT). CHAT is a community development organization located in Church Hill, a neighborhood located outside of Richmond, VA. It is Christian based and is devoted to working with and forming relationships with the inner city youth. CHAT has several programs such as after school tutoring, life skills classes, youth groups, summer camps, and even an academy for high school students. The families that work with CHAT open up their homes to these kids, who most of the time come from single-parent households and a high exposure to violence, drugs, abuse, and crime at young ages. The goal of CHAT is to build relationships with the youth of the neighborhood based off its three core values of faith, hope, and love. After hearing about his amazing experience, I knew I wanted to become involved in this organization. This summer I will spend 10 weeks in Church Hill. During my time there, I will be involved in the summer day camp for the youth, participating in a study program about racial reconciliation, urban ministry, and multicultural worship, and how to form and build relationships with the kids of Church Hill.

I am beyond excited to move to Church Hill at the end of May and begin serving God in the neighborhood. However, I will not be able to go through this journey alone. I would like to ask you all to take part in my journey by either being a prayer and/or financial partner. My goal is to raise $3500 to go towards CHAT's ministry and my salary, but I would like to exceed this goal so I can give back to CHAT. This funding will allow me to fully take part and immerse myself into the neighborhood. I would greatly appreciate any type of financial help you feel called to give, but your thoughts and prayers would mean the world to me as I take part in this awesome experience. If you are able or interested, please make checks out to CHAT with my name on the memo line. Checks can be mailed to CHAT 601 North 31st Str., Richmond, VA 23223. Donations can also be made online by visiting chatrichmond.org. Donations are also tax deductible. I am so excited for this opportunity, and I am eager to share about the work being done in Church Hill.

Sincerely,

Krista Winston

A Little TLC from the SLC

This is part two in a series of really great character building values to teach youngsters. It takes patience and practice to teach good character to your child. These tips and ideas can help you encourage respect, kindness, honesty, and other important traits.

CHARACTER BUILDERS

From Early Years

HONESTY

☼ Take turns thinking of examples of honesty, such as returning money someone dropped or not bragging to a friend that you can ride a two-wheeler if you really can't. Your child will learn more about being honest as you talk.

☼ Encourage honesty by making your youngster feel safe telling the truth. When he/she owns up to a mistake, like taking your keys to play with them, thank your child for being honest. Together, discuss what she could do next time (ask to play with the keys).

☼ Teach your child to make honest compliments. If your child is writing a thank you note for a gift she doesn't like, for instance, help your child think of something nice to say without lying ("this shirt has my favorite cartoon character on it").

EMPATHY

☼ Here's a way for your child to practice recognizing others' emotions. Take turns making faces at each other. You might say, "Show me your surprised face." After your child makes the face, he/she could ask you to do one ("show me your sad face").

☼ Name something that people in your family feel differently about (say, bugs). Let each person describe how they feel. You'll help your youngster understand that people may have different feelings than they do. Example: "I like spiders, but they bother Mommy."

☼ What can your child do if someone is upset, angry, or afraid? Encourage him/her to consider responses to people's feelings. You might say, "Trevor looks unhappy. Maybe playing a game with you would cheer him up."

A Little TLC from the SLC

A column for parents of young children, brought to you by the "Son" Shine Learning Center

Thank you so much for your commitment to 'Son' Shine Learning Center with your wonderful contributions to the SLC Love Offering. Our goal for this year is 4,000.00. As of this week, we have received $4201.00. With this Love Offering we have purchased a new piece of equipment for the SLC/FBC playground. 'The Doodlebug' has encouraged imagination and a focus on using gross motor skills. In addition to outdoor play, we would like to purchase resources for indoor play, sight word readers for our 4's and Pre-K classrooms, and new and exciting curriculum for all students.

Thank you again for your love and commitment to 'Son' Shine Learning Center

The Gospel of Matthew tells us, “Jesus spoke all these things to the crowd in parables; He did not say anything to them without using a parable.” Modern-day parables can be found in TV comedies of the past. The Beverly Hillbillies Bible Study will begin Thursday, May 29th, and last for four weeks. Sessions will be held on Thursdays from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m. in the lower auditorium. The study will be led by Bob Stainback. Pre-registration is not required, and participants do not need to attend all sessions.

The Helping Hands Ministry needs “more hands” than it currently has. This ministry sends cards to members of the church who are ill or are in the hospital. If you have a little extra time on your hands, call Elma Morrison, 662-0666.
